

Wise Men from the East, who studied the sky and the stars, had seen the large star that shone over the stable where Jesus lay and they set out on their journey, travelling on their CAMELS to go and worship him.

