

It is Christmas Day because the BABY JESUS has been born in the stable, surrounded by all the animals. Mary wraps him in clean blankets and lays him gently in the Manger which she will have to use for a Crib, but it is full of straw; he will be safe there.

