

British Summer Time officially begins on Easter Sunday. Don't forget to move your clocks forward by an hour. (One morning I did what we fear doing- not changing the hour and arriving at church just in time for coffee after the service! Fortunately, I wasn't leading worship that particular Sunday). It's also called Daylight Saving Time. Well, there's a sermon title ever there was one. Jesus the light of the world, risen to bring the light of God's salvation to all, and at the right time! Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Small Churches: Eventbrite link - Weds 24th April 1400-1500

Each small church has a gift to offer its community; a part to play in God's mission; a future with hope. Sometimes living into this hopeful future will mean joining with another church to share resources. Sometimes it will mean letting go of a cherished building in order to worship in people's homes or in a community centre. Whatever the end result, each small church gets there by starting with its mission: its particular part of God's calling to share the love of Christ with the world.

In this 60-minute Zoom gathering you will hear stories of small churches that have made big steps in discerning God's call and making changes for the sake of mission. You'll also have an opportunity to network with others and to receive input to help you in your own discernment where you are. All members of small churches are welcome, both lay and ordained.

Following feedback from last year's small church webinars, we will be focusing less on merging churches and more on discovering each small church's part in the mission of God.

Thursday 18th April 6pm - All We Can are launching a new campaign on Zoom, to work with Liberia. If you would like to join the zoom, please contact Deacon Kathy or Miriam by Thursday 11th April.

A time of celebration!

The Ledgard family would like to extend a warm welcome to any members of the Church family who would like to join them for tea and cake on Sunday 5th May 2024 from 3.30pm-6pm in the Lantern Centre, Hall Street Church. We will be celebrating Ian's 80th birthday (officially on 7th May), as well as this being his 60th year as a Methodist Local Preacher.
